Good Afternoon PDI Attendees!

As we conclude our second day of pre-conference activities, we would like to thank those CDFM instructors who assisted in delivering the CDFM courses yesterday and today. With their expertise, we are continuously improving upon the professionalism of financial managers. Additionally, we would like to take the opportunity to thank those individuals who registered and showed up bright and early for the CDFM courses - your dedication to the profession is inspiring.

If you have not already picked up your registration materials, please note that the registration booth, located across from the Great Hall, will be open tomorrow during the following hours:

Wednesday, May 27 7:00 AM - 5:00 PM

Unless otherwise notified, attendees must pick up their badges at the registration desk for access into all PDI 2015 events and programming.

Should you be in need of assistance while you are with us, please do not hesitate to contact an ASMC staff member or volunteer.

"The planning and execution of PDI 2015 took a great many people, including a large team of volunteers. My sincere gratitude for their commitment and dedication which has made hosting PDI in the Crescent City possible."

~ Al Runnels, ASMC Executive Director

Tomorrow's Highlights

WEDNESDAY, 27 MAY

0700 - 1700: Charity Raffle

The Charity Raffle provides attendees the exciting opportunity to win unique items donated by ASMC chapters and sponsors! The event helps to support the Bastion Group, this year's designated charity. The 2015 PDI Charity Raffle is made possible by Gold Level Sponsor, Deloitte.

0930 - 1130: Service Day

After the Opening General Session, attendees will break into Service-specific activities. Schedule and locations of activities can be found in the full program.

1800 - 2100: Welcome Dinner

All registered PDI attendees are welcome to enjoy an evening of fantastic food and networking with fellow financial management professionals. Attendees must provide dinner ticket upon entry to the event. The 2015 PDI Welcome Dinner will be held in the Great Hall.

Wrap-Up: Tuesday, 26 May

Special thanks to the CDFM instructors who led the program courses yesterday and today. If you attended CDFM courses, please be sure to fill out the corresponding electronic survey before June 5th.

Over 40 exhibitors will be set up in the Exhibit Hall. The exhibit hall will be open to attendees Wednesday and Thursday, 0700-1530. Please be sure to visit their booths between sessions!

Today's Scavenger Hunt was a great success! Over 200 PDI attendees participated in the event. Thank you to Gold Level Sponsor, Long Term Care Partners, and our volunteers who helped make this new event fun and festive!

Things to Remember

ASMC Volunteers are ready to help! Find one of our helpful volunteers in the lavender polo shirts or at the ASMC Info Booth located in the Great Hall.

DoD military and civilian employees who participate in the "Mini-Courses" (which have been aligned to DoD Financial Management Certification Program (FMCP) competency areas) will receive an email following the PDI that will support direct credit toward meeting DoD FMCP initial certification requirements at the levels identified on the workshop program and IAW with Certification policy, provided (1) they do not depart the Mini-Course early, and (2) they fully complete and submit the Mini-Course evaluation survey by Friday, 5 June. The individual evaluation survey link will be delivered to course attendees via email following the completion of the course.

We are proud to announce that Bastion Group has been selected as the PDI 2015 Charity. Bastion, a 501(c)(3) organization, builds neighborhoods in New Orleans designed for returning warriors and families with lifelong rehabilitative needs. Please help support them by purchasing Charity Raffle tickets before Friday's general session!
